RE: MUR 5517
Jim Stork for Congress, et al.

Dear Sirs:

On November 14, 2007, the Federal Election Commission ("Commission") found that there is probable cause to believe your clients, James R. Stork, Jim Stork for Congress and William C. Oldaker, in his official capacity as treasurer ("the Committee"), Stork Investments, Inc., d/b/a "Stork's Bakery" and Stork's Las Olas, Inc. ("the bakeries") violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a) and that the Committee also violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b), provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, in connection with advertisements by the bakeries that constituted coordinated communications and, thus, unreported corporate contributions by the bakeries to Mr. Stork and the Committee. The Commission also found that there is probable cause to believe that the Committee misreported advances from Mr. Stork to the Committee, in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(b).

The Commission has a duty to attempt to correct such violations for a period of at least 30 days and no more than 90 days by informal methods of conference, conciliation, and persuasion, and by entering into a conciliation agreement with a respondent. If we are unable to reach an agreement after 30 days, the Commission may institute a civil suit in United States District Court and seek payment of a civil penalty.
